THE FROST ASSASSINATION, PERSONAL AND SOCIETY

Osborne, a bright man, has been arrested on the charge of robbing and attempting to murder Mr. Frost, a prominent citizen of Woodland Mills, Tenn. It will be remembered that Frost, in the neighborhood of Woodland Mills, Tenn., in the night, called him up and told him that a well known farmer, who was a drug store, on the way he was knocked in the head, his arms were broken, and he was left in a helpless condition. The evidence against Osborne is very strong, but it is doubtful if he will be convicted.

ACARD.

I take this method of informing my friends that I have secured the services of Miss Lillian Althouse, of Memphis, as assistant, at Sylvan Shade Academy, the coming term. Miss Althouse is a lady of rare culture and ability, being well versed in literature, having taken first prize in composition with the best of her class at the University of Tennessee. Her success in teaching has won golden opinions from the most experienced.

The second term commences Monday, and desiring to make the school a success, we shall exert our best efforts to the end of "building" for the children, having by hard and faithful effort to be worthy of the patronage we hope to receive.

The school will be held at the residence of the principal, at the corner of the main street and the school building, at the corner of the main street and the school building.
